FLASH GORDON'S Trip to Mars

This is the first installment of a picture story telefeature (Ford's feature now weekly serial, based on the famous comic strip, "Flash" Gordon.

1 Taking a Strange Trip with the speed of light, 1,800,000 miles a minute, this planet also took Mars from the heavens to earth in the special event of this 11-part serial. The picture was produced for Hollywood by RKO Radio and directed by Ford Wheeler and Robert Hill.

2 Landing on Mars, the first discovery, under the watchful eye, the Marsians plant a strange device in the earth's surface. Then the, 50 million miles from home, killed by the earth's deadly atmosphere.

3 In Mars' first Empire of the world, the planet Marsians take the planet with them. Flash Gordon, to capture the planet, will be the earth's first planet discovery.

4 The Rocket Ship, Flash Gordon, the Mars, to send the earth from Mars, in the device (the Marsians) take out a 100 million, earth's atmosphere.

5 In the middle ground, a woman in a dark dress is holding a large, ornate, circular object, possibly a mirror or a piece of art. In the background, a woman in a light-colored jacket is looking at a display. The exhibit is set in a room with other displays visible in the background.

FLASH GORDON'S Trip to Mars

1 After Flash and Zarkov Escape being thrown into the fiery Lamp of Mars, they return to the clay men's cave just in time to hear the clay king threaten Dale and "Happy" with death.

FLASH GORDON ESCAPES FROM THE TREE MEN

This is LOOK'S second of three installments picturing the new Universal serial film, "Flash Gordon's Trip to Mars," in which Buster Crabbe stars.

Flash Gordon, his fiancée, Dale Arden; a scientist, Dr. Zarkov; and a newspaper photographer, "Happy," have gone to Mars to wreck a giant lamp which is destroying the earth by drawing away the nitrogen from the earth's atmosphere.

Dale and "Happy" are held captives by a race called the clay men. Flash and Zarkov have just escaped execution by Emperor Ming of the mythical planet, Mongo. With Queen Azura of Mars, Ming plots to rule the universe.

2 "Flash Gordon Has Betrayed Us and You," the clay king tells Dale (Jean Rogers) and "Happy" (Donald Kerr). The king warns the two that unless Flash returns within 24 hours, they will be turned into clay, "never to see the sun again."

3 Realizing They Must Try Again to capture the queen, Flash and Zarkov (Frank Shannon), slip away unseen, discover a secret vacuum railway and enter one of the cars. The railway leads to the laboratory in Queen Azura's great palace.

4 Zarkov Builds a New Weapon and tries it out on Flash after the two overpower the queen's laboratory guard. Unknown to Zarkov, however, the crafty Ming (Charles Middleton) and Azura (Beatrice Roberts) are watching through a television set. They see him paralyze Flash with the new machine.

FLASH GORDON
Is Trapped
In a Deadly Prison

5 Though the Paralyzing Gun Kept Flash Rigid while Ming rushed in and captured Zarkov, the scientist managed to turn a lever which again freed Flash, who now seizes the weapon and turns it on Ming. Zarkov has donned a special gas mask to return to the clay men's cave through the vacuum tube tunnel which Ming has filled with poison gas. Flash soon will follow, leaving Ming and his soldiers helpless.

6 When Flash Convinces the clay king that he is still fighting Azura, the king advises him to get help from the forest people, or tree men. These men, however, believe Flash is an enemy, and attack his reunited party.

7 A Brawny Stranger appears during the battle with the tree men, and as Flash is about to attack him, he learns the stranger, Prince Barin (Richard Alexander) of Mongo, seeks to help him. Barin is an enemy of the wily Ming.

8 Only the Great Strength of Flash and the prince enable them to overcome the tree men, who now are furious because Flash has found and pocketed a magic black sapphire belonging to them. With this black sapphire, Flash will be able to overcome the magic of Azura's white sapphire when he returns to her palace.

9 Confronted By the Black Sapphire, Azura submits to capture by Flash, who has reached her palace through another secret passage. She knows this jewel destroys her power. Flash then directs Prince Barin to take Azura to the clay king, while Flash remains behind to destroy the giant Lamp of Mars, which has been repaired.

10 Ming is Waiting for Flash, however, and with the help of Tarnak, the powerhouse chief, he overpowers Flash, and pushes him helpless and alone, into a small metal room. Ming twists a dial outside and fills the room with deadly electrical discharges. Once again Flash seems defeated. How can he possibly escape?

FLASH GORDON'S Trip to Mars

FLASH GORDON Returns to Earth

This is LOOK's concluding installment of the 15-episode serial, "Flash Gordon's Trip to Mars," a Universal picture starring Buster Crabbe.

Flash Gordon (Buster Crabbe); his fiancee, Dale Arden (Jean Rogers); with the scientist, Dr. Zarkov, and a newspaperman, "Happy," have gone to Mars in a rocket to wreck the Lamp of Mars, which is destroying the earth. In the previous installment, the evil Emperor Ming trapped Flash in the palace powerhouse after Flash and his friends had captured Queen Azura by the aid of a magical black sapphire. Now go on with the story.

1 Flash Blows a Hole in the Wall of his metal prison with a nitron gun he had dropped when he was thrown, half-unconscious, into the small room to die. He now escapes, but soon will be caught again and the magic black sapphire which gave him power will be stolen from him.

2 Queen Azura Vanishes in a Puff of Smoke. Back in the clay men's kingdom, where she had been taken after her capture, Queen Azura is just about to return the clay people to flesh and blood when she realizes her magic power has returned. She vanishes into thin air.

3 Ming Has Chained Flash to a steel chair in the disintegration chamber. Flash's friends, Zarkov and Prince Barin, realizing he is in danger, come to his aid.

4 Dale Stabs Flash. After Flash again escapes from Ming, he goes back with his party to the Forest kingdom, where Dale is captured and hypnotized by her enemies, the tree men, so she stabs Flash when he tries to rescue her.

5 The Death of Queen Azura. After a further series of wild adventures during which Dale regains her senses, Flash recaptures Queen Azura. Before she is fatally wounded by Ming's bombing planes, she repents, urges him to free the clay people.

6 Flash Captures a Martian Pilot. After Azura's death, Flash single-handedly turns back the Martian bombing fleet from an attack on the clay people.

7 Clay Men Become Human. Azura had asked Flash to destroy the magic sapphire. As he does so, the clay men become human.

8 Ming Is Killed by one of his own men when Flash reveals Ming's bombers killed Azura. The clay king becomes ruler of Mars.

9 Flash Gets a Hero's Welcome when he returns to earth after setting up the friendly clay king as Emperor of Mars and destroying the giant Lamp of Mars which had been removing the nitrogen from the earth. Crowds cheer and sirens wail as the adventurers ride through the streets.
